University, Nanded, Maharashtra.

Introduction :-

Headmaster is the chief person in the management of the school. "The headmaster holds the lye position in a school as the captain of the ship holds the key position on a ship" W.M. Raiburn. There is an important role of headmaster in the school management. Planning communicating, motivating, organizing etc are the area of the work of the headmaster.

Headmaster is responsible for administrative management, it is about managing information through student, teachers and society. "Evidence of good administration is when you don't know it is happening!" The lord piston of Mile End. Many administrative and managerial processes are repetitive and require to be regularly reviewed; school management is also one of such processes.

A good headmaster can add value to the school management by challenging the efficiency and reliability of procedures that have been running for continuing improvement and identifying and cutting out any outdate practices. With the speed of change in business today the headmaster has to value the people who are expected to operate complex problems.

"The destiny of India is now being shaped in her classrooms." Dr.Kothari ,the role of headmaster is to give the student 'The art of living' harmoniously and developing ideals and values needed in an enlightened citizen of a democratic and secular state.
